JAMES BAY, THE OUTSTANDING ARTIST

Singer-songwriter James Bay is one of the most exciting musicians of his generation. With 'Hold Back The River' and 'Let It Go', he wrote global hits that each reached over a billion streams. Winner of BRIT Awards, an ECHO Award and several GRAMMY® nominations, James released his fourth studio album, 'Changes All The Time', in 2024. In 2026, the 35-year-old will perform his greatest hits at Art on Ice.

JESS GLYNNE, THE NUMBER ONE HIT RECORD HOLDER

Fancy some number one hits? Jess Glynne has had seven of them in the UK charts – a record for a British female solo artist. The GRAMMY winner has toured the world to millions of fans and was awarded the BRIT Billion Award in 2024 for her streaming records. At Art on Ice, she will present her iconic voice and hits such as 'I'll Be There,' 'Hold My Hand' and 'Don't Be So Hard on Yourself' on stage. Show producer Oliver Höner on the two superstars: „For our 30th anniversary, we wanted voices and personalities that have both international careers and character and appeal to a wide audience. James Bay and Jess Glynne add depth, energy and international appeal – and together with our Swiss musicians Stress, Stefanie Heinzmann and Noah Veraguth and the world's best figure skaters, the show will be hard to beat.“

WORLD AND EUROPEAN CHAMPIONS ON THE ICE

There will also be a top-class line-up on the ice. World champions will wow Swiss audiences in three disciplines: from the USA, three-time ice dancing champions Madison Chock and Evan Bates will be performing in Zurich, as will two-time world champion Ilia Malinin, known as the 'Quad God'. In pairs skating, the 2024 world champions, Deanna Stellato-Dudek and Maxime Deschamps from Canada, as well as the current vice world champions Minerva Fabienne Hase & Nikita Volodin from Germany, are part of the tour. Also in the ensemble are two-time European champion Adam Siao Him Fa and his French teammates, European ice dancing silver medallists Evgeniia Lopareva & Geoffrey Brissaud, and Kevin Aymoz, who will be skating in Fribourg and Davos. „It's a cast of superlatives. There is a good chance that we will be able to welcome several gold medallists from Milan to Art on Ice!“ says Oliver Höner. The line-up is completed by crowd favourite and social media star Elladj Baldé. From a Swiss perspective, European champion Lukas Britschgi and European bronze medallist Kimmy Repond are the stars of the show.
